

2019 AOSCA Annual Meeting – Chicago, IL Dining Options

There are several dining options available in The Drake Hotel:

- Café on Oak - the newest and only beachy, breakfast nook overlooking Lake Michigan in the Gold Coast neighborhood, serving the iconic MM (Marilyn Monroe) +JD (Joe DiMaggio) benedict.
- Coq d'Or - this Gold Coast Neighborhood fixture opened on December 6, 1933 following the repeal of Prohibition. The patina of Coq d'Or blends rich wood paneling, rogue leather accents, live weekend entertainment and a cozy glow to evoke a truly nostalgic vibe.
- Palm Court - For those who love their afternoon teas fresh, colorful, fragrant and steeped in history, Palm Court at The Drake, a Hilton Hotel, serving tea for nearly a century in the Gold Coast neighborhood of Chicago, is the quintessential Magnificent Mile afternoon tea experience. (Thursday through Sunday)
- Lavazza Café - an energetic color palette of red, white and black, high-style Italian furnishings complemented by dramatic artwork. The menu goes above and beyond, offering seasonally, fresh hearty artesian sandwiches, salads and a tempting variety of fresh breads, croissants, muffins and cookies.
